Notice of SRI Research Scholarship in Yoga Education

About SRI

The Swan Research Institute (SRI) was formed in 2001 as an independent, incorporated Association to promote quality research in areas related to the causes, prevention or cure of diseases in humans. SRI has Deductible Gift Recipient status from the Australian Tax Office on this basis for this category. Swami Niranjanananda Saraswati is its president

SRI Research Scholarship

SRI is offering a Research Scholarship in Yoga Education to be awarded as a part or full scholarship to those eligible persons who are interested in training to become a yoga teacher through the Satyananda Yoga Academy (SYA) in Mangrove Mountain, NSW for the purposes of research into some aspect of yoga for health and well-being. The scholarship is intended for those persons who may be unable to attend the academy due to remoteness of their local community; financial difficulty; adversity or some physical or other disability.

The scholarship is to be awarded each year and was initiated to encourage study and research into the field of Yoga, to develop further understanding of its practices and its implications for physical and mental health; healthy lifestyle; physical, mental and spiritual development.

Terms and conditions

The scholarship is open to all Australian citizens and permanent Australian residents. Prior experience from any yoga tradition is acceptable. Scholarship/s will be offered at the discretion of SRI Directors with input from SYA and can be available for the full 3 year Diploma course at the SYA in Mangrove Mountain, NSW, including the three year residential stay, where applicable OR as a part scholarship to complete previously incomplete studies at SYA. A small living allowance may be available if the candidate chooses to live at the yoga centre. Transport costs to and from the SYA may also be available to the successful applicant, dependent on costs and available funds. Unsuccessful applicants may reapply in subsequent years. If in any year, no award is made due to lack of suitable applications, further scholarships may be offered the following year.

Payment conditions

Payment for each module and residential stays will be paid directly to SYA.
Living expenses will be paid directly to the successful applicant.

The award may be held concurrently with any other award or scholarship. Successful and unsuccessful applicants may apply in subsequent years.
